

Principles to Practice:
4 Reasons to Choose
Catholic Law

At The Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law (Catholic Law), you'll do more than gain the skills essential to successful legal practice in the 21st century – you'll grow into an even more effective and compassionate lawyer thanks to the community around you. We are proud that 93.4% of our students are employed within 10 months of graduation.

We are a true community. At Catholic Law, you'll always feel supported. With a small student-faculty ratio, students and faculty are partners in learning. Faculty are accessible – always there for you as you navigate your courses, seek advice, or search for externship or other experiential opportunities.

Our faith-inspired university welcomes all students. Catholic Law has a unique mission of service that will provide you with a legal education while helping you grow professionally and as an individual. We celebrate the diversity of backgrounds, religious affiliations, and viewpoints that each member brings to our community.

Location, location, location. Situated in the heart of Washington, D.C. (and just one Metro stop away!), Catholic Law gives you the opportunity to observe Capitol Hill in action or earn class credit via tailor-made externships. As an international city, D.C. offers a wealth of cultural and social experiences from a variety of perspectives.

Our alumni are our best ambassadors. They serve as mentors, assist with externship and career opportunities, and provide meaningful lifelong connections. As a member of the Catholic Law community, you are part of a nurturing, supportive network that is always there for you.
